CLASSIC, ELEGANT
BATHROOM DESIGN

Axor Citterio / Design by Antonio Citterio

Axor Citterio offers timeless, classic design, along with elegance and the ultimate in comfort: The exciting contrast between surfaces, curves, and little details that go unnoticed until you take a second glance, making these mixers true gems. This collection embodies true appreciation for water, the elixir of life.

Axor Citterio E

/ Design by Antonio Citterio

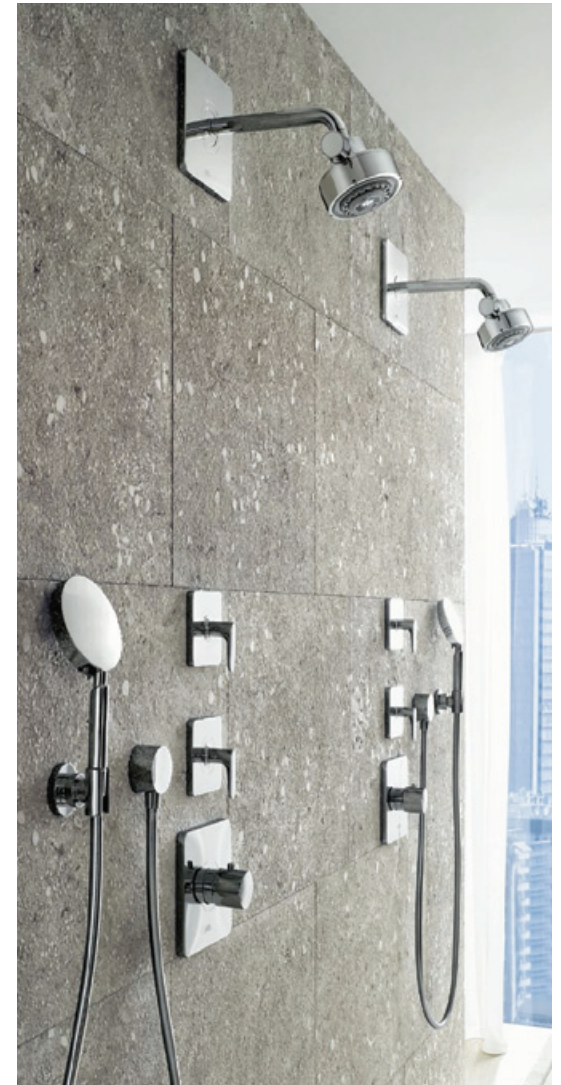

The Essence of Luxury

The Axor Citterio E bathroom collection demonstrates how Italian eleganza can add convenience and, a touch of elegance to your day-to-day bathroom activities. E stands for timeless elegance, which is a feature of all the mixers and spray heads for the wash basin, shower and bath tub.

Timeless & sophisticated Bathroom

urban bathroom design

Axor Citterio M embodies the fine art of timelessly modern design, and is thus compatible with a wide variety of bathroom styles. The "M" stands for modernity, metropolis and Milan – the home city of Antonio Citterio. Citterio M is characterised by strikingly slender forms, and lightness.

Axor Urquiola

Design by Patricia Urquiola

With Axor Urquiola, the line between bathroom and living area. The entire collection is characterised by flowing transitions, soft shapes and gentle curves. Every single element has its own charming and endearing qualities.

Awakening your Senses

Axor Massaud

/ Design by Jean-Marie Massaud

With dreamlike lightness, Massaud reveals the symbiosis between human being, water, object and space. Axor Massaud transforms water, the element of life, into a primal experience. For people who are delight in the original.

A collection for all nature lovers

TIME RECAPTURED THE CLASSIC

Axor Montreux

Design by Phoenix Design

Axor Montreux takes us back to the early 20th century, it is ideal for both traditional and modern bathroom environments. Design your bathroom using mixers and other furnishing elements to create an overall harmonious look, or use Axor Montreux to create contrasts.

Axor Uno² / Design by Phoenix Design

Axor Uno² is a bathroom collection that deliberately focuses on the individual character of the bathroom user. The bathroom products are classic minimalists, so they will blend in unobtrusively with any style. The free expression of your own style can display a whole range of different characteristics: purist or extravagant, Bauhaus style or post-modern.

The classic minimalist

The Axor Uno² style's clear, timeless modern shower design: with matching hand and overhead showers, in the form of a shower set or in combination with side showers.

Axor Starck bathroom mixers are simplistic and uncompromising. The characteristic joystick handle for the basin mixer comes in two variants – classic feather handle and modern pin handle.

The aesthetics of minimalism

The Axor Starck bathroom collection has survived all the trends. Ever since it was launched, it has impressed architects and planners time and again. It is the first collection from Axor, and has become a popular classic all over the world.

Axor Starck Organic

/ Design by Philippe Starck

THE ORGANIC, MINIMALIST DESIGN LANGUAGE

Axor Starck Organic combines various aspects of design. It creates a sensuous water experience, while at the same time giving serious consideration to technology, ecology and economy. The design is characterised by organic minimalism, and is powerful and sculptural. It takes the natural world as its inspiration: for example, the mixers remind us of branches, and they appear as if they have grown out of one element.

Axor Starck V

/ Design by Philippe Starck

A water vortex is a fascinating spectacle of nature. Axor Starck V is a designer product which visualises this extraordinary water experience and brings it home to your own wash basin. The transparent glass body enables you to experience water so vividly, like never before.

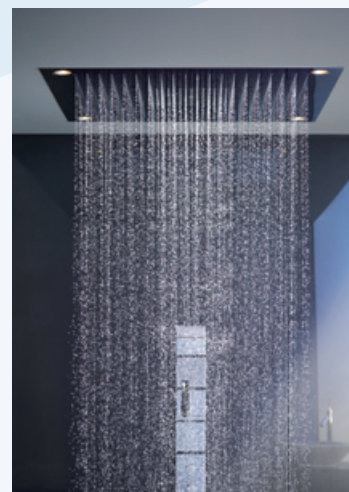

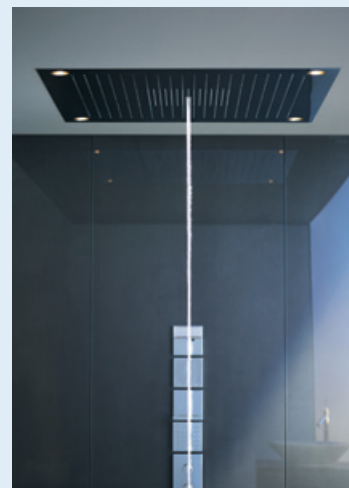

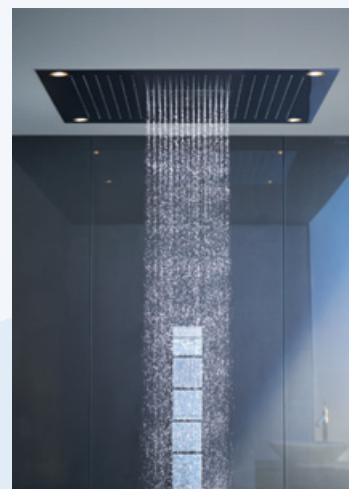

The result is a unique eye-catching feature at the wash basin: with its sensuous, organic shapes and sculptural appearance, the mixer becomes a well that is used on a daily basis, not to mention a unusual bathroom object.

Axor ShowerCollection / Design by Philippe Starck

Axor ShowerSolutions are created from a convergence of outstanding design and high technological standards. Each detail plays its part in creating an exclusive showering experience.

Endless Possibilities

Axor ShowerCollection can transform your shower into a personal spa. This is a simple modular system comprising showers, mixers and accessories provides you with virtually endless possibilities.

Combine the 12 x 12 cm square-shaped elements to suit your personal requirements – horizontally or vertically, arranged freely or in groups.

Axor One / Design by Edward Barber & Jay Osgerby

ALL - IN - ONE SHOWER SYSTEM

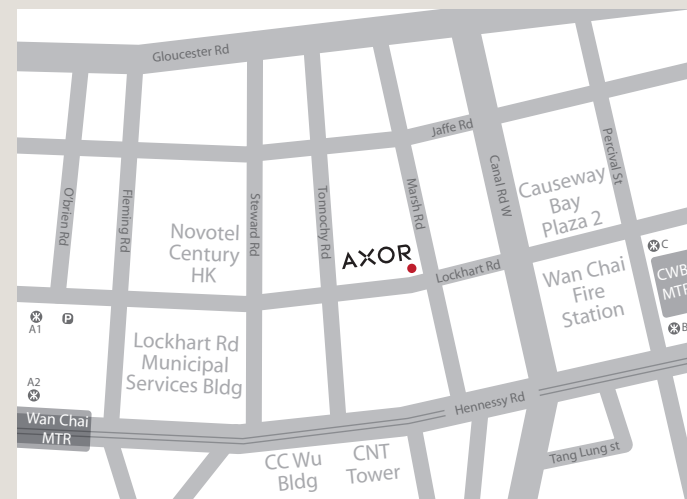

Make a bold statement in your shower with the all-in-one Axor One thermostat module. Just like a monolith, Axor One radiates majestic tranquility with its flat shape, soft curves and generous proportions. All functions are concentrated in one central control unit, from which you can control the showers simply by pressing the paddles.

Axor One was created by London designers Edward Barber & Jay Osgerby. They focus on the philosophy of interaction design: here, the design is determined by how the user interacts with the product, making Axor One a truly intuitive shower control system.
